G.O.RT.No. 255

Dated:27-04-2015
Read the following

1. Letter No.119/NRHM/EE/SPMU/2012, dt.13.08.2012 of the Commissioner of FW., AP., Hyderabad.
2. From the Commissioner of H&FW(FAC), & MD, NHM, A.P., Hyderabad Lr.No.119/NRHM/EE-SPMU/2012, dt.22.10.2014.
3. From the Commissioner of Health & Family Welfare, Hyderabad, Lr.No.119/NRHM/EE/SPMU/2012,dt.07.02.2015.

ORDER:

Based on the approval in the supplementary PIP under NHM for 2012-13, the Commissioner of Health and Family Welfare, AP, Hyderabad has issued an administrative sanction vide reference first read above for construction of buildings for 19 MCH Centers of excellence with 100 bed capacity in the undivided State of Andhra Pradesh, at an estimated cost of Rs.258.70 crores.

2. Subsequently, based on further review of the subject matter, team visits and considering the opinion of the expert members, certain changes/modifications to the buildings were proposed besides adding two more wings viz., skill laboratory and academic wing as per MCH Tool Kit.

3. Post bifurcation of the erst-while State of Andhra Pradesh, out of 19 MCH Centers, 10 MCH Centers belonged to the successor State of Andhra Pradesh with an estimated cost of Rs.137.50 crs. as apportioned.

4. The Commissioner of Health and Family Welfare, AP, Hyderabad in his letter 3rd read above has intimated that based on a subsequent decision it was proposed to increase the bed capacity to 150 beds/ each in respect of the 10 MCH Centers (except the MCH Centre at Vijayawada with 100 bed capacity) that belonged to the Andhra Pradesh.

5. Thus taking into account the developments as discussed in paras 2, 3 and increase in the bed capacity as indicated in para 4 above, the APMSIDC has reassessed and revised the estimated cost of construction of buildings for 10 MCH Centers at Rs.169.00 crs. as against Rs.137.50 crs. estimated earlier involving an additional outlay of Rs.31.50 crs. It is proposed to meet this additional expenditure also from the NHM funds.

6. A further amount of Rs.30.00 crs. has been projected for procurement of equipment for these 10 MCH Centers proposed to be met by utilizing the funds sanctioned as GIA under 13th Finance Commission. With this the total estimated expenditure for construction of buildings for 10 MCH Centers in Andhra Pradesh works out to Rs.199.00 crs.

7. Accordingly, the Commissioner of Health and Family Welfare, AP, Hyderabad in his letter 3rd read above has requested the Government that while ratifying the action taken for sanctioning construction of buildings for 19 MCH Centers of excellence with 100 bed capacity issued earlier, the Government may issue revised administrative sanction for the total amount of Rs.199.00 crores (Rs.169.00 crs. for civil works and Rs.30.00 crores towards equipments) for construction of buildings for 10 MCH Centers of excellence in the successor State of Andhra Pradesh.

8. Government after careful examination of the revised proposals furnished by the Commissioner of Health and Family Welfare, AP, Hyderabad while ratifying the action taken earlier for issuing sanction for construction of Buildings for MCH Centers, hereby issue a revised administrative sanction for a total amount of Rs.199.00 crs. (169.00 crs. for civil works and Rs.30.00 crs. for procurement of equipment) for construction of buildings for 10 MCH Centers of excellence in the successor State of Andhra Pradesh with 150 bed capacity/each (except the MCH Centre at Vijayawada with 100 bed capacity). The hospital/MCH centre-wise revised cost details are as under:
